New York Sun
Closed were factory and store
M. Gordess the wheels of trafe,
Traffic a pulses beat no more,
Silent stood the city at nd
With a pair, it was those and fear
In her heart sho waited will
Till the great news at c sho ild hear
Tiding from the far off mill

Culture talks and Browning leas
Were descrited pale and thin
Maidens hurtled by the preces
Gasped and shrilled Did Sully win?"
Fride and joy in Baston's pet
Each beart filled and each eye lit,
"John will do him np, you bet,
John is fine as silk, and 81."

While flashes o'er the gilded dome
The sea of sunsat color.
While Boston is the Brahmin's home,
Our John shall clasp the cruller,
while reedy Charles shall soaward flow,
Shall brainful Boston bug her
Stark son who laid Jake Klirnin low,
John Sullivan, the slugger!

While Medford's terse and tingling rum
the beart of man te firing.
While pligrims from far nations come—
To Bunker's shaft aspiring.
While Bostonward Maine's greenhowns throng
To bite at bunco ruses,
To late thy fame shaft last, O, strong,
Bicel sinewed Polydeuces!

While Kelly's, Franklin's, Prescott's names Our Boston heaven are lighting: While Harviard joys in manly games, And Burgers yachts go kiling. While that Nahant in summer awells, And money's bet and lost on Our nine, fame rings for thee her bells, John Sullivan of Boston!

Washington July 17—The civil service commission to-day made public its decond report in the Milwaukee postofilee investigation. It is very voluminous, and double its length the substantiation of the charges against Fostmaster Paul, and concludes as follows; Mr Paul has growing and hubitually violated the divileervice law and has done at its a peculiarly tevolting and underhanded manner. His conduct merits the severest punishment. While he retains his position, it is hopeless to effect an honest administration of the laws. His further continuance in office would be a great misoriume, and we recommend his immediate removal.

In our forefathers' days, pimples were attribu and in torrainers day, intiples are actionated to diseased blood. But modern medicine has demonstrated that rich lood does not create cruptions by fouling the blood but retards digestion, which makes the stomach torpid and the circu lation sluggish, and in turn causes an enfeebled action of the peres which congestor become pimply. The modern theory therefore is not to treat the blood, but the stomach and liver, and it is under this now idea, that Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla was conceived. It has wiped out the "blood disease theory of plingles, of the old sarsaparillas. A case in point "I have had for years spalls of indigestion and dispepsia and incd nearly everything. Finally I took one of the leading sarsaparillas. It did not help me but caused pimples to break out on my face which I caused pimples to break out on my face which I was told was caused by the potash it contained Rearing that Joy a V getable Shranparilla did not con ain mineral and might act differently, I sent for it. The pinu [se disappeared immediadely and I have now after months had no return of the old spells. It is a cure for indigestion and despenda and the attendant face eruptions."

Remarkable Curative Powers of Electricity.

There can be no doubt nor question of the curative powers of electricity, judging from the extraordinary cases of cure performed by the Drs Darrin in this city. The great advantage of electrical action is that it brings relief in a large number of diseases confessed to be ond the reach of the ordinary remedies of the physician, and it has fallen to the lot of Drs. Darrin to enforce a belief in the curative powers of electricity upon the public by the following remarkable cures.

The only overmakering interest that has over in our listory made any great section of the nation politically "solid" has been slavery, and the last presidential election shaved, that the collidary is the collidary of the coll that the solidity of the South will hardly survive the century.

we see the great West gradually becoming solid against the East? Those who think the prospect of the West arrayed against the East a plausible assumption, point out that at the late presidential election the states Alleghenies and north of Ohio over time to the Pacific, including Missouri, cast 151 out of 401 electoral votes, or nearly two-fifths of the whole number. The sus of 1890 will undoubtedly show an enormous interaction of course, their representa-tion in congress and the electoral college, while the creation of four new states from Not (hwest territories will further raise the percentage of the electoral college al-lotted to the West; so that it is safe to say that in 1892 two-fifths of the electoral votes will be cast by the West that extends from the Alleghanies and the Ohio river line to West, steadily declines in political po England and the Middle states cas seventy-six out of 135 electoral votes

Ta-day these ten states have only 115 out of 401, or but little more than a quarter, and under the next apportionment, they will be sure to make a still further decline in political strength. It has no great material interest, like slavery, to make it anthat the West is exclusively an agricultural region and the East the home and empire of manufactures. In 1880 Ohio reported much more than ball the amount of capital inwested in manufactures which she should have had relatively to New York on the the basis of population; Illinois, nearly half her quota on the basis of Pennsylvania; even Missouri, more than a third of the total needed to place her on an equality with New Jersey in the ratio of such capital Nor is it always true that population. Pennsylvania and New York, great manufacturing states, cast their electoral placturing states, cast their electoral votes for Cleveland. Indiana has rapidly growing manufacturing interests, and is a very close state. Illinois has greatly increased her manufactures since 1880, but gave Harrison a much smaller majority than Garfield. The West is not so exclusively agricultural, com-pared with the East, that it can be said to be in any more danger of becoming solid for any one sectional interest than the East. There was a time before the great transcontinental railroads were built when the Pacific states were in some danger of drifting away from the Union, had a good opportunity presented itself, but with the building of these great lines of quick transportation these great lines of quick transportation, which make Portland as near New York to-day as Boston was to St. Louis when Ames built the first mile of the Union Pacific, this danger, if it ever existed, has disappeared, never to return. If not, people who are frittering away their time in praying for prohibition might, for the sake of variety, take one of the initial steps in temperance, the way of which has been duly laid out and carefully which has been duly half out and carefully paved by legislation, of lodging complaint against the proprietors of the "Rosebud" salcon, where these young girls are said to have gotten "gioriously drunk," or against any one of a dozen salconkeepers for supp.ying the notorious "habitual" Mrs. Rear-don with liquor. The reasons why a woman should be in charge of women who are in durance as criminals are obvious. The simple statement that there are women in the cells of any prison suggests all that morality and decency would say in the matter of supplying them with an attendant of their own recommendation should be acted upon with out unnecessary delay.

Prohibitionists who have swarmed to Olympia for the past two weeks are likely to be out their ruiroad fare and board, with-out being able to get in on the constitution. There was not the slightest prospect that prohibition would be incorporated in that instrument in the beginning, hence ordinary political sagacity would have saved its advocates the disappointment and expense incident to a trip to and sojourn in Olympia at this time.

LONDON GRAIN LETTER. The London correspondent of the Northwestern micr, writing under date of June 24, has the following:

bir about $0.500,000 bushels, isavisg reserve stocks on July 1 next of $6.000,000 bushels, isavisg reserve stocks on July 1 next of $6.000,000 bushels, as about $2 per serve to be that the big stop spoken of in America has already been discounsed, and that in view of the deficiency in Russis, Hungary, Roumania, India, Australasis, Chile and the Arguntius, which must aggregate nearly 150,000,000 bushels, the season of 1829-50 will not be one of abundance, to say the least, as the crops of America, France and England are not likely to yield more than 120,000,000 bushels in excess of last year. This fact, with almost uniprecedentedly low stocks in the United States at harvest time and a quantity afford for the United Kingdom much below the confident of the confident to render holder the period on record for 1829-50. With respect to the United Kingdom, we are by no means sure of sufficient supplies in the new senson. English farmers will probably deliver $6.000 bushels per week, which will leave 2,500,000 bushels per week, which will leave abroad it this means that if the harvest should after all not be so carly as expected, there will be lively times.

abroad. This means that if the harvest should after all not be so early as expected, thure will be lively times.

As REGIABN OFFINION OF THE COFFEE SITUATION. According to the highest authorities on the matter, the average annual deliveries of coffee in the chief entirepois of the world from 1882 to 1888 reached about 10,000,000 bags, or say about 300,000 bags per mouth. Applying this average to the season and the next one following we arrive at a total outgoing of 14,000,000 bags, more or less; that is to say, that there will be almost an impossibility to completely satisfy the actual wants of commerce and consumption, since against this normal outgoing of 14,000,000 bags we can only provide 18,750,000 bags as supplies. We should say besides that the average of the outgoings should be rather higher, because trade and consumption, in the expectation of their requirements, and everybody has remained more or less in a certain attitude of the requirements, and everybody has remained more or less in a certain attitude of the potago, buying only from day to day. It is that that from 11,47,200 bags of deliveries in 1883 as a phave come down in 1888 to deliveries of 10,44,500 bags. This voluntary abstention of the having heen only 1,818,500 abags, or deliveries of 10,44,500 bags. This voluntary abstention of the having heen only 1,818,500 abags, oving to day. It is that that from 1,818,500 abags, oving to the average of the stocks in the interior which have supplied the means for staying the rise which the seneral position commanded.

After having reached the extended and consumption has been only 8,185,800 bars, owing to the difference in the stocks in the interior which have supplied the means for staying the rise which the general position demanded.

After having reached its extreme limit in 1887, the resistance descent itself. It has become necessary to me of trade and consumption has been forced bester itself. It has become necessary to me of renewed purchases in accompaniment of the gradual rise in the article, and it is this pronger and stronger, notwithstanding the activates. This is, perhaps, the point at which to remark that the real consumption cannot be affered by a rise, even though this be very marked. One is easily convinced of this is considering carefully the individual proportionality of the quantities consumed. In regard to this we give extracts of statistics published by Mr. Mulball in 1855, in reference to the rates of communition in different countries. It is seen from this that Great Britain consumes annually, per inhabitant, about 137 liters of strong drink and half a kilogram of coffee; France, 119 liters of drink and 124 kilograms of coffee; in the consument of the coffee; it is of drink and 154 kilograms of coffee; it is of drink and 154 kilograms of coffee; it is of drink and a filters of drink and a filters

The Merchandise Market.

The general condition of trade holds good, and prospects are bright for an active fall. On Monday super fell off ½c all around, and the impression holds fair that the situation is weak and another decline may be looked for any day.

In sympathy with the drop on the coffee exchange in New York, Salvadors have fallen in San Francisco to 17½ from first hands. Less than 1000 bags changed hands at this price, and since then there has been a constant daily advance in New York of ½c, until coffees are ngain within 1e of the highest price this year. Importers are now holding Salvadors at 10c, and it is very difficult to get any concessions.

The general opinion, backed by statistical reports of the heat experts, is that coffees will remain high this year. Coffees are in very strong hands, and it will be an uphill job for the bears to break the market.

The San Francisco Commercial News in its weekly review has the following:

While there is no real change in the market for nut oil, quotations show a wider range, due to the difference of quelly in offerings, and 68674c per gallon is now the range of price. Rice is in fair domaind at steady rates, except for Hawalian, which is quoted at $4.02694.75 per hundred pounds. The market for salt is firm, owing to moderate supplies and a good demand, which has advanced all the cheaper brands of Liverpool to $186919 per for. As has already been noted in this column, the manger advices from Alaska (and it is too early to expect more), are being used to built the salmon market, but here menchants are too familiar with threston changes not, to be partiethe saimon market, our nere mercants are too familiar with this method, which, like the lews of the Medes and Persians, changes not, to be particularly indiunneed by it. What effect it may have abroad remains to be seen. A tolegram from Victoria, dead the 10th, says: "News from the salmon canneries is most encouraging. At Maas and Skena rivers, Alert bay and Rivers Inlet the canneries have secured from 2000 to 5000 cases each. When the steamer left the sockeyes were running freely, and the run will last three weeks." All that has no be said regarding canned fruits is that that market is firm, the pack will be light and indications point to higher rates for peaches.
